LET'S MAKE SOME DIGITAL MAGIC.

NEW · THE WHISPER NETWORK, OFF-SCREEN

Hyphal Column 菌柱

The Whisper Network now has a body: a five-foot steel column with six screens and a tree hole inside. Whisper one sentence and a pixel spore grows. Your sentence never shows on any screen — only the spore it grew.

sky · past spores as stars

field · the colony, now

archive · every specimen

7″ micro · the newest, up close

two elders · they visit, sleep, sing

H ≈152 cm · Ø45 cm base

At the booth today

free · open to all · sit down, slow down

1

WHISPER

Tell the tree hole one sentence, in any language.

2

GROW

A one-of-a-kind spore joins the colony on the tower.

3

MAKE

Rebuild it with 3D-printed pixels and take it home as a charm.
